Capgemini receives antitrust clearance from European Commission for its proposed acquisition of Altran

Paris, 24 October 2019 – Capgemini (Euronext Paris: CAP) today announced that it has received antitrust clearance from the European Commission for its proposed acquisition of Altran (Euronext Paris: ALT).

Capgemini has now obtained all the required regulatory clearances, including from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), and from the antitrust authorities in India, the United States, Morocco and now the European Commission. Its friendly tender offer for Altran has been open since 16 October. The closing date of the offer will be set by the French financial market authority AMF (Autorité des marchés financiers).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This press release is disseminated for information purposes only and does not constitute an offer to purchase, or a solicitation of an offer to sell, any securities of Altran Technologies.

Investors and shareholders are strongly advised to read the documentation relating to the tender offer, which contains the terms and conditions of the tender offer, as well as, as the case may be, any amendments and supplements to those documents as they will contain important information about Capgemini, Altran Technologies and the tender offer.

This press release must not be published, broadcast or distributed, directly or indirectly, in any country in which the distribution of this information is subject to legal restrictions. The tender offer is not open to the public in jurisdictions in which its launch is subject to legal restrictions.

The publication, broadcasting or distribution of this press release in certain countries may be subject to legal or regulatory restrictions. Therefore, persons located in countries where this press release is published, broadcast or distributed must inform themselves about and comply with such restrictions. Capgemini and Altran Technologies disclaim any responsibility for any violation of such restrictions.
