

Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting

May 23, 2013

Capgemini has received 3 questions from ANAF (Association Nationale des Actionnaires de France).

- 1. What is the current amount of Group goodwill and its relative importance compared with equity?

Answer from the Board of Directors:

Group goodwill totals €3,702 million at December 31, 2012 and represents 82% of equity (€4,529 million at December 31, 2012).

- 2. Were asset impairments recognized in 2012? In what amount?

Answer from the Board of Directors:

As indicated in Notes 10 and 12 to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, no impairment of goodwill was recognized in 2012.

- 3. Do you envisage recognizing asset impairments in fiscal year 2013 if necessary?

Answer from the Board of Directors:

As required by regulations and disclosed in Note 12 to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, the value of goodwill is controlled each year through the performance of impairment tests at the year end (except in the event of a major event during the fiscal year), using the discounted cash flows method. The results of these impairment tests will be taken into account when preparing the 2013 consolidated financial statements
